2018 Appalachian Mission Trip

Open to all high school teens who have already attended a Steubenville Youth Conference!

July 29 - August,4 2018

332 Riverbend Road - Louisa, KY

$275 includes everything - fee, food, lodging & transportation

(*$75 non-refundable deposit due with application)

As part of our ongoing mission to lead teens closer to Christ, we're honored to be able to offer once again, our third annual mission trip! This trip is open to those teens who have already attended a Steubenville Youth Conference. This summer we'll be traveling to Louisa, KY to provide assistance to those living in Appalachia. Whether it's making some home repairs, unloading trucks and stocking the Mission Center store, feeding or serving meals to others, we'll be spending a week, working with the staff and summer interns at the Father Beiting Appalachian Mission Center (FBAMC).

The Second Bishop of Lexington, Ronald Gainer, established the FBAMC in 2006 as a way to both recognize and sustain the rich legacy of evangelization and service of Monsignor Ralph Beiting (1914-2012), who ministered to the people of Eastern Kentucky for over 60 years. It is an apostolate of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Lexington, KY.

This opportunity is only open to the first 20 high school teens, who apply!

Complete the application below, drop it off at Life Teen.
Please include a non-refundable $75 deposit (checks to be made out to Saint Patrick Church).

Deadline to receive applications and deposits is before 9 PM on March 4, 2018.
Openings will be awarded on a first-come / first-serve basis.
Any application received after that time will be added, if space allows.
